ADVISORY BUSINESS

Advisory Firm Description

7th Harvest Investments, LLC ("7th Harvest Investments or the "Firm") has been in business since January 2006. Earl Jefferson is the sole owner.

Types of Advisory Services

7th Harvest Investments, LLC provides its individual and organizational clients fee-based investment management services. Retirement plan sponsors are provided retirement plan investment consulting services. Each is further explained below.

Sub-Advisory Services

We provide Model Portfolio Management Services as a sub-adviser. In other words, a client may engage an independent registered investment adviser or an adviser associated with a Broker-Dealer (hereinafter, "Adviser") which, in turn, will engage our firm (and possibly other investment advisers) to provide portfolio management services to all or part of its clients' portfolios. In this situation, the client is a client of the Adviser and not 7th Harvest Investments, and, therefore, the Adviser and not our firm will be responsible for collecting and analyzing client investment goals and objectives and determining the suitability of one or more of our investment models. Once such an assessment takes place, the Adviser will instruct us as to which investment model to use for each sub-advised account. The Adviser will be responsible for updating client suitability information and reassessing the suitability of the selected 7th Harvest Investments investment model on an ongoing basis. Our firm will receive a fee charged to the client in accordance with the agreement between us and the Adviser. Clients of Advisers should refer to the Adviser's disclosure document for additional information regarding its advisory services, total fees, conflicts of interest and other important information. 7th Harvest Investments has discretion to implement recommendations made in the performance of these services.

We also provide Portfolio Management Services as an Investment Manager for a collective investment fund maintained by trustees that is designed to serve the investment needs of tax-qualified retirement plans. We will receive a portion of the trustee's fee paid by clients of the trustee as outlined in 7th Harvest Investments' agreement with the trustee.

Model Portfolio Services

We also provide access to our investment model portfolios to other investment advisers who are clients of 7th Harvest Investments. Under this service, we will provide investment advisers with allocations and holdings in our proprietary investment models and send them updates any time changes are made to the models. Because 7th Harvest Investments does not have discretion to implement recommendations, investment advisers may, at their sole discretion, decide to implement or decline to implement any or all of our provided recommendations.

401k Plan Model Services

We also provide Portfolio Management Services to 401k plans that elect to have plan assets managed within 7th Harvest Investments models. 7th Harvest Investments has discretionary authority over the management of these assets.

Individual Investment Management

This program is for clients who want assistance in designing, implementing, monitoring, and maintaining an investment portfolio. This service includes the following:

- Determining clients' investment goals
- Evaluating current assets
- Determining projected cash flow needs
- Determining any investment constraints
- Determining client risk tolerance
- Developing an asset allocation, including specific investment recommendations
- Placing trades in client's account
- Ongoing support
 - Support to the client for the account establishment and/or transfer assistance.
 - Portfolio monitoring.

We provide Portfolio Management Services for individual accounts not directly held in our custody, but where we do have discretion, and may leverage an Order Management System to implement strategies on behalf of the client. These are primarily defined contribution and defined benefit retirement accounts in addition to other assets we do not custody. We regularly review the available investment options in these accounts, monitor them, and implement our strategies in the same way we do other accounts, though using different tools as necessary.

7th Harvest Investments provides portfolio reviews upon request. The Firm also encourages at least annual meetings with clients to review their investment objectives and financial condition.

Retirement Plan Investment Consulting

7th Harvest Investments provides plan sponsors with assistance establishing and monitoring retirement plan investments. These services include:

- Meeting with plan sponsors on a periodic basis
- Assisting with determination of investment strategies
- Ongoing monitoring of investments
- Participant education
- Rebalancing the strategies as appropriate

Client Assets Under Management

As of December 31, 2024, 7th Harvest Investments manages $58,288,707 on a discretionary basis and $19,670,035 on a non-discretionary basis.

COMPENSATION

Sub-Advisory Service

Our annual fee for sub-advisory services will typically range from 0.25% to 0.75% of assets under our management.

Model Portfolio Services

Our annual fee for model portfolio services will typically range from 0.35% to 0.75% of assets allocated to the model/strategy maintained by our firm.

Individual Investment Management

Our annual fee for portfolio management services will typically range from 0.15% to 2.00% of assets under our management.

Retirement Plan Investment Consulting

Our annual fee for retirement plan investment consulting will typically range from 0.25% to 0.50% of assets under our management.

Fees in General

We will either directly debit client accounts, invoice clients, or receive a fee directly from advisers or their firms who calculate and deduct fees from client accounts (as specifically agreed with each client). These fees are typically charged quarterly in arrears at the beginning of each calendar quarter based upon the value (market value or fair market value in the absence of market value), of the client's account at the end of the previous quarter (pro-rated for additions and withdrawals), based upon the average daily balance, or based upon the value of the account on the last trading day as determined by the applicable advisory agreement.

For direct, Individual Investment Management, the Firm bills quarterly fees in advance at the rate of one fourth of the annual fee shown above and may be deducted from clients' accounts. The first payment is due upon execution of a Client Agreement and is based upon the opening value of the clients' account. Fees will be prorated accordingly in the event the Agreement is executed at any time other than on the first day of a calendar quarter. Accounts opened mid-month will be billed in advance pro-rata to the end of that quarter. The dollar amount under management is initially determined after all the assets to be managed have been transferred into the account.

Fees are then determined on the first day of each calendar quarter based on the account value as of the close of business on the last business day of the preceding quarter and shall be automatically deducted from the account. Fees are calculated based on the portfolio valuation as determined by the account custodian. If the client does not have a billable account, those fees will be billed directly to the client.

In some cases, as specifically agreed with each client, these fees will be charged monthly but never to exceed $1200 six months or more in advance.

Fees for all services are negotiable based upon certain criteria (e.g., anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, dollar amount of assets to be managed, related accounts, account composition, negotiations with client, etc.) and may take the form of a flat monthly, quarterly, or annual fee. Discounts up to full waiver of fees, not generally available to all our advisory clients, may be offered to family members and friends of 7th Harvest Investments and others at the discretion of 7th Harvest Investments.

We may group certain related client accounts for the purposes of determining the account size and/or annualized fee. Certain legacy client agreements may be governed by fee schedules different from those listed above. Under no circumstances will we earn fees in excess of $1,200 more than six months in advance of services rendered.

Account Termination

Clients may terminate their agreement by providing us with a written notice at our principal place of business at any time. Upon termination of any account, any prepaid, unearned fees will be refunded, and any earned, unpaid fees will be due and payable. Agreements cannot be assigned or transferred without prior written permission.

ETF, ETN, Fund, and Partnership Fees and Expenses

All fees paid to our firm for investment advisory services are separate and distinct from the fees and expenses charged by ETFs, ETNs, Funds, and Partnerships to their shareholders or limited partners. These fees may include a management fee, other fund expenses, and a possible distribution fee. A client may be able to invest in an ETF, ETN, Fund, or Partnership directly, without the services of our firm. In that case, the client would not receive the services provided by us which are designed, among other things, to assist the client in determining which ETFs, ETNs, Funds, and Partnerships are most appropriate to each client's financial condition and objectives. Accordingly, the client should review both the fees charged by the ETFs, ETNs, Funds, and Partnerships and the fees charged by us to fully understand the total amount of fees to be paid by the client and to thereby evaluate the advisory services being provided.

Brokerage and Custodial Fees

In addition to advisory fees paid to our firm, clients will also be responsible for all transaction, brokerage, trade-away and custodial fees incurred as part of their account management. Please see Item 12 of this Brochure for important disclosures regarding our brokerage practices.

Other Compensation

Certain representatives of the firm, in their individual capacities, are licensed insurance agents, and may recommend the purchase of certain insurance-related products on a commission basis. Clients can engage certain of the firm's representatives to purchase insurance products on a commission basis.

The recommendation by 7th Harvest Investments or any of its representatives that a client purchase an insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend financial products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any commission products from the firm or its representatives. Clients are reminded that they may purchase insurance products recommended through other, non-affiliated insurance agents.

PERFORMANCE-BASED FEES AND SIDE-BY-SIDE MANAGEMENT

7th Harvest Investments does not charge performance based fees.

TYPES OF CLIENTS

7th Harvest Investments provides investment supervisory services and manages investment advisory accounts for:

- individuals
- high net worth individuals,
- banks or thrift institutions,
- trusts, estates, or charitable organizations,
- pension and profit sharing plans,
- corporations or business entities other than those listed above.

7th Harvest Investments has a preferred minimum dollar value of $250,000 for direct individual investment management client relationships. The firm reserves the right however, to waive or lower this minimum.

METHODS OF ANALYSIS, INVESTMENT STRATEGIES AND RISK OF LOSS

7th Harvest Investments uses a combination of the following types of analysis in evaluating investments for client accounts:

- Charting—analysis of charts of past stock or security performance
- Fundamental—analysis of financial attributes of a company, such as revenue growth, debt to equity ratio, inventory turnover, etc.
- Technical—analysis which assumes past performance is a predictor of future performance.

7th Harvest Investments uses the following sources of information in its analysis:

- Financial newspapers and magazines
- Research materials prepared by others
- Annual reports, prospectuses, filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission
- Company press releases

The investment strategies 7th Harvest Investments uses to implement investment advice include the following:

- Long-term purchases (securities held at least a year)
- Short-term purchases (securities sold within a year)
- Trading (securities sold within 30 days)
- Margin transactions
- Option writing, including covered options, uncovered options or spreading strategies

The Firm does not guarantee the future performance of the account or any specific level of performance, the performance of any investment decision or strategy that the Firm may use, or the performance of the Firm's overall management of the account. The client is reminded that investment decisions made for the account by the Firm are subject to various market, currency, economic, political and business risks, and that those investment decisions will not always be profitable. Clients are reminded that investing in securities involves risk of loss which they should be prepared to bear.

DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Neither 7th Harvest Investments nor any of its personnel has any disciplinary or legal events or sanctions to disclose.

OTHER FINANCIAL INDUSTRY ACTIVITIES AND AFFILIATIONS

Mr. Jefferson may serve as a public speaker and adjunct instructor at times.

CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION OR INTEREST IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

Code of Ethics

7th Harvest Investments has adopted a Code of Ethics which describes the general standards of conduct that the Firm expects of all Firm personnel (collectively referred to as “employees”) and focuses on three specific areas where employee conduct has the potential to adversely affect the client: misuse of confidential information; personal securities trading and outside business activities. Failure to uphold the Code of Ethics may result in disciplinary sanctions, including termination with the Firm. Any client or prospective client may request a copy of the Firm’s Code of Ethics which will be provided at no cost.

The following basic principles guide all aspects of the Firm’s business and represent the minimum requirements to which the Firm expects employees to adhere:

- Clients’ interests come before employees’ personal interests and before the Firm’s interests.
- The Firm must fully disclose all material facts about conflicts of which it is aware between the Firm and its employees’ interests on the one hand and client and the Firm’s interests on the other.
- Employees must operate on the Firm’s behalf and on their own behalf consistently with the Firm’s disclosures and to manage the impacts of those conflicts.
- The Firm and its employees must not take inappropriate advantage of their positions of trust with or responsibility to clients.
- The Firm and its employees must always comply with all applicable securities laws.

Misuse of Nonpublic Information

Employees may not convey nonpublic information nor depend upon it in placing trades for clients or personal accounts.

Personal Securities Trading

7th Harvest Investments or individuals associated with the Firm may buy, sell or hold in their personal accounts the same securities the Firm recommends to its clients. Such trades must occur after the client trades placed on behalf of the clients with the client receiving same or better pricing if the trade is placed the same day as client trades in the same security.

Employees are required to submit reports of personal securities trades on a quarterly basis, and securities holdings annually. These are reviewed by the Chief Compliance Officer to ensure compliance with the Firm’s policies.

Outside Business Activities

Employees are required to report any outside business activities generating revenue. If any are deemed to be in conflict with clients, such conflicts will be fully disclosed.

BROKERAGE PRACTICES

Selecting custodians and brokers

7th Harvest Investments selects broker-dealers by using one or more of the following criteria: brokerage commission rates, standard profit margins on non-commission securities, product availability, execution capability and quality of research regarding specific markets and/or securities. The client may pay commissions which are higher than those obtainable from other broker-dealers in return for the value of services provided to the client or 7th Harvest Investments by a specific broker-dealer.

In recommending brokers, 7th Harvest Investments adheres to its duty to obtain best execution by considering the range and quality of the products the broker offers, the technical support the broker provides, the broker's execution capability, the commission structure, the financial stability of the broker and the responsiveness of the broker to the Firm.

The Firm enacts most trades through the custodian to avoid "trade away" fees. The Firm recognizes its responsibility to attain best execution and recognizes that limiting its custodial relationships may affect its ability to provide best execution on a trade-by-trade basis. However, the Firm evaluates its entire custodial relationship in assessing best execution on a client-by-client basis.

Research and Other Soft-Dollar Benefits

7th Harvest Investments currently has no formal soft-dollar arrangements, where specific products or services are paid for with soft dollars generated by individual trades the Firm places in client accounts. The custodian(s) used by the Firm's clients provide 7th Harvest Investments with services that allow the firm to operate more efficiently, such as electronic availability of client account information and trade confirmations, and access to specialized customer service personnel. 7th Harvest Investments may receive access to certain custodians' proprietary account management and data transmission services to enable the Firm to trade clients' accounts electronically. 7th Harvest Investments enjoys increased administrative ease and, hence, profitability because of these services provided by these custodians. Because of the volume of assets that 7th Harvest Investments clients have directed to these firms, these custodians make certain products and services available to the Firm at reduced or waived fees.

Brokerage for Client Referrals

7th Harvest Investments does not place trades with brokers in exchange for referring clients.

Directed Brokerage

7th Harvest Investments does not allow clients to direct which custodians should hold their accounts or which brokers should execute their trades. 7th Harvest Investments requires clients to open accounts with either Schwab Institutional or TD Ameritrade. Not all advisers require clients to open accounts with specific custodians.

Order Aggregation

7th Harvest Investments may group trades in the same security across client accounts into a single, or “block” trade. These blocks may be executed in pieces at different prices on the same day, but all shares participating in the block are assigned the same average price per share at the end of the day. Blocks are allocated across accounts as appropriate. In the rare event that a block order is partially filled, the shares would be allocated on a pro rata basis. Neither Schwab nor TD Ameritrade provides commission breaks for enacting block trades. They charge each account as if the trade had been enacted on an account by account basis. Thus, the only advantage to conducting block trades at 7th Harvest Investments is to ensure all clients trading in the same security on the same day receive the same price.

Trade Order Rotation

7th Harvest Investments almost always executes model changes for SMA accounts as step-out transactions. Therefore, a trade rotation is rarely used for model changes for the SMA programs. 7th Harvest Investments does not exercise trading discretion over its UMA client accounts. As a result, 7th Harvest Investments utilizes a trade rotation for its “model-only” or UMA products on participating platforms. When updating models on these platforms, 7th Harvest Investments intends to follow a methodology for contacting UMA Sponsor Firms in a pre-determined order that is fair and equitable to all clients so that no group of clients is consistently favored or disfavored over any other clients. Recommendations to UMA Sponsor Firms will be distributed after 7th Harvest Investments completes all transactions for client accounts in which it exercises trading discretion.

REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

Managed client accounts are reviewed on a daily basis. Client reviews are conducted at least annually and upon request by clients. All clients are encouraged to meet with the firm at least annually. Additional reviews may be triggered by events such as a client meeting, change in a client’s risk tolerance, financial position or investment objective, change in a company or fund’s management, unusual market or economic circumstances or other unforeseen event.

CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

7th Harvest Investments and other professionals refer clients to one another but do not compensate one another for such referrals.

CUSTODY

Custody is defined as an investment advisory firm, its related entities, and/or its personnel having direct access to client funds or securities.

Deducting fees directly from client accounts is deemed a form of custody by the Securities and Exchange Commission, although all investments and funds are held by a qualified custodian that provides statements directly to clients at least quarterly. The Firm may direct the movement of funds from one account in the client's name to another but has no access to funds or securities except for the deduction of management fees.

INVESTMENT DISCRETION

7th Harvest Investments is granted limited power of attorney for its clients to provide trading and fee withdrawal authority. 7th Harvest Investments may determine which securities to buy and sell and the size of each transaction without receiving permission from the client beforehand.

VOTING CLIENT SECURITIES

7th Harvest Investments votes on proxy matters for issues held in managed client accounts. Clients receive proxy material directly by email or US mail from their account custodian, and may request assistance from 7th Harvest Investments personnel on a particular proxy matter.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

There is no financial condition that is reasonably likely to impair 7th Harvest Investments' ability to continue to provide services to its clients.
